Honoring Tradition

The fences and dugouts on the PHMS baseball field may be new, but the soil is part of a long-standing tradition of Mooresville sports.

The new Memorial Field is sits in the same spot as the first Memorial Field, dedicated for Mooresville

American Legion Post 103 Commander Emily Armstrong and VFW Post 1111 Commander Todd Gonterman threw out the first pitches for Memorial Field's dedication with the Historic Mooresville Gym, Academy Building, and Newby Elementary in the background.

Planning for the 2021-22 School Year

Find information to plan for the fall on the final pages of this week's Pioneer Blast, including the 21-22 calendar and school supply lists for all elementary schools.

Any new families who haven't done so should visit our Enrollment webpage to complete their paperwork for any grade level, including options for virtual learning.

Out-of-district applications will be accepted through tomorrow, May 28. After that time, any full grade levels or schools will be closed to out-of-district applications.

Tox Away, Shred Truck June 26

The Morgan County Solid Waste District Tox Away Day will be June 26 at MHS for chemicals, appliances, and more. Mooresville Schools will again sponsor a shred truck. For a donation of $5 per box to help fund school supplies for students in need, you can have documents safely shredded while you watch. Please note the traffic pattern around the school for that day. Learn more here.

Tradition

The 1948 sports complex was part of a large community project that year, as Mooresvillians joined forces to build and dedicate the Mooresville Veterans Memorial on the front corner of the campus and to rename the adjoining street to Memorial Drive.

The new field will be the home of Paul Hadley Middle School's seventh and eighth grade baseball teams.
